

Year 1 Spring Term Book List

Book	Author	Why have we chosen it?	Values promoted within
Tidy	Emily Gravett	This story encourages children to think about their environment in terms of what is natural or manmade, and what is environmentally good or bad. This story also fits well with our science topic of materials.	Respect Empathy Responsibility Collaboration
Varmints	Helen Ward	Another picture book that encourages children to think about our impact on the world around us, and what we want our world to look like.	Respect Collaboration Responsibility Wellbeing Friendship
Malala's Magic Pencil	Malala Yousafzai	A picture book based on the true story of a girl and her heroism presented in an age-appropriate way. A fantastic example of what a modern "hero" might look like, to fit with our CC topic of "heroes".	Learning Courage Independence Resilience Equality
Zen Shorts	Jon J Muth	Fables from another culture that encourage children to reflect on their values and actions, told through relatable and likable characters.	Independence Resilience Collaboration Respect Happiness
We Are All Born Free	Amnesty International	The Universal Declaration of Human Rights, brought to life by many of our favourite children's illustrators. Also chosen to fit our "heroes" topic, this book can be used to explain to children how all people should be treated without exception.	Equality Respect Collaboration Happiness Responsibility Kindness
The Paper Bag Princess	Robert Munsch	This story allows children to think critically about the stereotypes they see in fairy tales and stories, by introducing them to a Princess	Courage Integrity Self-worth Equality Kindness

		who saves a Prince from a ferocious dragon. An excellent starting point for discussions about gender and equality.
We're All Wonders	R. J. Palacio	This book is about a boy with a visible disability, and teaches us to recognise what is the same about us all, while treating differences with kindness and respect.	Kindness Respect Resilience Equality Friendship
Poems to Perform	Julia Donaldson	A collection of high-quality, fun and accessible poetry to enjoy at home, from a wide range of well-known children's writers.	Learning Respect Friendship Kindness Happiness