

Year 2 Autumn Term Book List (Fire and Ice)

Book	Author	Why have we chosen it?	Values promoted within
Lost and Found	Oliver Jeffers	This relates to our Fire and Ice topic. It is a story of a boy who decides a penguin is lost and tries to help him find his way home. As well as linking to the Values, it supports our Science and Geography topics, understanding the differences between the UK and Antarctica.	Collaboration Kindness Courage Independence Friendship Curiosity
The True Story of the 3 little pigs!	John Scieszka	As part of our studies on Traditional Tales, this book is told in a different light which helps children to think again about which characters are good or bad and why.	Honesty Trust Kindness Empathy Respect
Charlie Cook's Favourite Book	Julia Donaldson	This book focusses on the enjoyment of reading and exploring different texts and linking themes together.	Curiosity Independence Creativity Learning
Vlad and the Great Fire of London	Katie Cunningham	This helps the children to think of the Great Fire of London from a different point of view.	Courage Determination Friendship Curiosity Collaboration Motivation
Katie in London	James Mayhew	This introduces children to a range of London landmarks by taking them on an exciting adventure.	Friendship Curiosity Trust Kindness

Room on the Broom	Julia Donaldson	Linking in with our materials topic in science, this book shows creative ways of fixing problems.	Friendship Collaboration Courage Determination Creativity Empathy Kindness
Mr Wolf's Pancakes	Jan Fearnley	This relates to our DT topic of baking, the book also shows alternative ending to familiar stories.	Independence Trust Honesty Friendship Ambition
Big bear, little brother	Carl Norac	This book links with our Fire and Ice topic and follows the journey of Big Bear. It introduces children to different types of sentences and punctuation types.	Collaboration Friendship Responsibility Resilience Independence Kindness
The Jolly Postman or Other people's Letters	Janet &amp; Allan Ahlberg	The layout of the book is an instant hook and introduces them to a range of writing genres.	Participation Collaboration Responsibility Ambition
George's marvellous medicine	Roald Dahl	The book is a more challenging chapter book which links in with our baking topic and instruction writing.	Creativity Curiosity Respect Honesty Well-being Happiness