

Year 6 Greater Depth Book List

Book	Author	Why have we chosen it?	Values promoted within
The Nowhere Emporium	Ross McKenzie	A book that deals with battling personal conflicts within. How to overcome challenge when very little people believe in you.	Resilience Courage Learning Curiosity Respect Equality Empathy Independence Honesty
The Elsewhere Emporium	Ross McKenzie	A book that promotes self-belief and courage to do what is right even when that means putting yourself at risk.	Resilience Courage Learning Curiosity Respect Equality Empathy Independence Honesty
Boy at the top of the mountain	John Boyne	This book links fantastically to out WW2 topic. It will enable the children to start to see how life was for those linked to Nazi soldiers.	Resilience Courage Learning Curiosity Respect Equality Empathy Independence Honesty
Boy at the back of the class	Rauf Onjali	The hard-hitting reality of refugees coming to England and their struggle to fit in. It also teaches children that race, gender, religion, family background shouldn't make a difference to the person within.	Resilience Courage Motivation Determination Learning Curiosity Respect Empathy Kindness Equality Collaboration Trust Participation Friendship Independence Honesty

			Responsibility Well-being
His dark materials trilogy	Philip Pullman	A trilogy of books which is a must read for able readers. The trilogy of books enables children to experience expertly written sentences demonstrating a wide range of sentence structures and punctuation. This series is great for demonstrating GD writing.	Resilience Courage Motivation Determination Learning Creativity Ambition Curiosity Respect Empathy Kindness Equality Collaboration Trust Participation Friendship Independence
Going Solo	Roald Dahl	An autobiographical read of life during the Second World War and what life was like as an RAF pilot.	Resilience Courage Motivation Determination Learning Ambition Curiosity Respect Equality Trust Participation Independence Responsibility

The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time	Mark Haddon	A great book to promote empathy and understanding of different viewpoints in preparation for the children's next step in their education. This book successfully tackles the world of Asperger's syndrome.	Empathy Curiosity Well-being Friendship Respect Kindness Resilience
The Diary of Anne Frank	Anne Frank	A topic related read which would help children to empathise with the Jewish people and understand the conditions in which they carried out their everyday lives, during WW2.	Empathy Curiosity Well-being Friendship Respect Kindness Resilience Equality Trust Learning Determination Courage Responsibility
The Wizard of Oz	L. Frank Baum	A classic text which demonstrates a number of different values throughout, including our own Hillside values.	Courage Self-belief Participation Friendship Collaboration Learning Curiosity Equality Kindness