Dear Parents/Carers,

As you may be aware, we teach phonics through the use of the Read, Write, Inc (RWI) phonics programme. As your child takes part in the RWI sessions, they are able to take home "Bookbag Books", which are linked with this phonics programme. These books are a fantastic resource, which will link to your child's learning in the RWI sessions. They are based on the sounds that they are learning and will help to embed their phonic knowledge further.

We ask that you help your child to respect these books, by ensuring they are returned to school every day in your child's bag in a good condition. They need to be in every day as we are reading these books during the sessions too. Please note that your child must return this book before they will be given their next book, and if books are lost or damaged we will ask you to contribute a cost of £5.00 towards the cost of a replacement.

Kind regards,

Nana Keen
